

EISENHOWER WINS

Purtell, Bush Win Senatorial Seats

By Jan Golden

Connecticut voted Republican yesterday, choosing as president Dwight D. Eisenhower over Illinois' Governor Adlai E. Stevenson by a plurality of 129,507 votes. The rest of the state also went along with the Republican Party candidates as three congressional seats and two senatorial posts were filled by GOP nominees, with only one Democratic Congressional candidate being elected.

Senator William A. Purtell of West Hartford defeated the incumbent Senator William Benton for the six year term by more than 90,000 ballots. Purtell polled 575,455 votes while Benton received 494,159.

Purtell thanked the people of Connecticut, whom he said carried him "from the back yards of Hartford to the United States Senate." He pledged that he would conduct himself both inside and outside of office in a manner that would make the people of Connecticut proud of him.

Senator William Benton surprised the entire state by conceding the election to "President Eisenhower" as early as 9 P. M. last night.

Elected by a plurality of 30,373 ballots, Prescott Bush of Greenwich totaled 559,586 votes to Congressman Abraham A. Ribicoff's 529,213. Bush was "overwhelmed with gratitude" and thanked the many helpers in his victorious campaign.

The Republican sweep of victory included the re-election of Antoni N. Sadlack of Rockwell, as Congressman-at-Large.

The Socialist Party showing continued to be fairly high with Bridgeport's Mayor, Jasper McLevy, receiving 11,846 votes and the Independent Republican's Vivien Kellems receiving 21,357.

"The people have spoken," commented McLevy to a SCRIBE reporter. He added that he would make another bid for a Senate seat when election time rolls around again.

Bridgeporters Go Republican By 314 Votes

A city divided almost equally against itself was the story in Bridgeport yesterday as Eisenhower took the Park City by the narrow margin of 314 votes.

In an exclusive statement to The SCRIBE, Republican State Chairman Clarence Baldwin attributed Eisenhower's 314 vote plurality in predominantly Democratic Bridgeport to "Democrats who put their country before their party."

This is the first time since the 1924 election that a Republican presidential candidate has received a majority of the votes cast in Bridgeport. Pre-Election forecasts were for a 10,000 vote Democratic victory.

Curiously, however, Democrats were favored for Congressional positions.

THE WINNER — Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower, a 62 year old Republican. He was the former Supreme Commander N. A. T. O. and Pres. of Columbia Univ. He was born in Dennison, Tex., and graduated from West Point.

Republicans In - Dick Nixon New Vice-President

By Ron Gold

Governor Adlai Stevenson conceded the Presidential election to General Dwight D. Eisenhower at the Leland Hotel in Springfield, Ill. at 1:45 this morning.

"I have a statement to make," the Governor told a soberly exuberant crowd of party workers. "My fellow citizens have made their choice. They have rendered their verdict and I accept it."

Stevenson referred to Eisenhower as a "valiant and vigorous opponent."

He also thanked his party, the independent voters and the Republicans who backed him. He also sent the thanks of John Sparkman, his running mate.

Stevenson wants the nation to give Eisenhower all the support possible. "We vote as many," Stevenson said, "but we pray as one."

"We shall move forward with God's guidance when his children shall go forward with dignity and peace."

Shortly after midnight, "Ike" led in 35 states with 397 electoral votes. Stevenson led in only 13 states and had 134 votes in the electoral college. Election requires 268. Eisenhower had 13,490,342 popular votes to "Steve's" 11,969,718.

It appears that the Republican battle cry of "it's time for a change" was heeded by the voting public as the electoral college seems to be overbalanced in the direction of the GOP.

Eisenhower, at his New York headquarters, read the telegram sent to him by the Illinois Governor.

"I recognize the insight and the responsibility placed upon me," the General stated. He also promised to fulfill his new office in the best manner possible.

In other national contests, Wisconsin Senator Joseph R. McCarthy won a smashing victory over his Democratic opponent by 2½ to 1. Senator William Jenner of Indiana was also re-elected.

In neighboring Massachusetts, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, brother of Governor John Davis Lodge and one of "Ike's" most ardent supporters finally conceded in his fight for re-election. His opposition was Democratic Rep. John F. Kennedy.

At SCRIBE bedtime (4 A. M.) three veteran Democrats, Ernest W. McFarland of Arizona, and the Senate's Democratic leader, Joseph O'Mahoney of Wyoming and Dennis Chavez of New Mexico were running behind their Republican opposition.

Journalism Students Pay Visit To Both Campaign Headquarters

REPUBLICAN
By Dick Evans

Flares, brooms, placards and a VFW band were all part of a victorious GOP parade through downtown Bridgeport last night. The jubilant Republicans tramped from Golden Hill St. headquarters to Bull's Head.

"We will justify the confidence of voters by our deeds and not merely our words," said Hanford W. Bigelow, GOP Town Chairman.

Bigelow joined with committeeman A. Edward Sandula and Alarn Tellalian, committee chairman, in thanking party workers for the splendid job done in swinging the city into the Republican column for the first time since the election of 1924.

DEMOCRATIC

By Myra Selde and Charles Smith
With a disappointed shrug, Democratic Town Chairman Albert Coles locked up his office at 8:40 P. M. last night. "We tried very hard," said the Democratic chief. During the evening, Democratic leaders had expressed mixed feelings over the returns. At the announcement of the defeat of senatorial candidates Benton and Ribicoff, Coles had said, "Benton was a great Senator and Ribicoff would have been a great man in the Senate."

The general feeling at headquarters had been, well it's a 1932 in reverse, we might as well go home.

Students Aid Networks In Election Coverage

This special Election Day issue of The SCRIBE was put out by the combined journalism classes of Howard B. Jacobson and Theodore Dahl, in cooperation with The SCRIBE and the journalism department.

The students working in conjunction with television station WNBT and radio station WNBO, relayed Bridgeport and Fairfield County election returns from Cortright Hall to the NBC studios in New York.

William A. Purtell, Republican Senator-elect, defeated Senator William Benton of Southport.

Prescott S. Bush, Republican Senator-elect defeated Congressman Abraham A. Ribicoff.

Sane Pledging

The rush is on! To our upper classmen that phrase represents the opportunity to rush or pledge one of our fraternities or sororities. To our Freshmen it can only arouse a future anticipation.

Those who "Rush" and are selected as pledges will be looking forward to their pledge activities, but will they look upon them with fear or pleasure? At one time the answer would have been "fear" on many a campus.

Here at UB we are very proud of our sane pledging. There was a time when a future fraternity brother or sorority sister faced public embarrassment, not to mention mental strain.

"Hell Week" in those days meant just that in every sense of the word. UB on the other hand sponsors limited public embarrassment combined with beneficial tasks.

Through their short years of existence, our fraternities and sororities have received greater satisfaction from having their pledges act for the good of the community and campus rather than having them participate in fruitless nonsensical pranks.

When a pledge rushes a fraternity or sorority, he or she not only wants the distinction that goes with brotherhood or sisterhood, but he wants to improve his organization to the best of his ability. With regards to this important task, sane pledging contributes to the improvement of the organization and maintainance of its well established status.

There are many ways of carrying out the policy of sane pledging. Without going into great detail, it seems very appropriate to mention a few pledge tasks on campus.

Alumni Hall needs men! Strong able bodied fraternity pledges will fit the requirements. The painter's progress has been hindered because of the debris around the building. Some unwilling volunteers could take care of the matter in short order. Can it be arranged fraternities? Ah yes! There is some shrubbery that just has to be looked after. There's some pruning, some weeding, raking and planting that the sororities, we are sure, will be happy to do.

What about the rest of the campus. Well, what about it? We can all think of things that can improve the appearance of our campus. We can clean up a little here, and redecorate a little there and before you know it UB will be Hollywood's idea of an ideal campus.

There are many things that can be done if there are people to do them. We all like to have laughs and fun, but let's work too. We've all heard of the old saying "You can't mix business with pleasure." Fraternities and sororities know it can be done. Let's keep our sane pledging.

Early Rushing Begins As UB Goes All Out

By Gary Singer

About a week ago there was a noticeable amount of rapidity among many students who have not been known to move faster than a snail's pace since their initial appearance on our fair campus.

This seemed slightly on the unusual side and this reporter regarded it with more than a casual amount of interest. My curiosity reached even higher bounds when I made the rather interesting discovery that all the "busy-bodies" were Residence Hall students.

Decided to get to the bottom of all this when a fleet freshman appearing to be in the fifth stage of St. Vitus' dance flew by. A flying tackle brought him back to earth and the following conversation ensued.

Me: What's the hurry? Lose something?

Him: Not yet. Gotta' find John.

Me: Who's John?

Him: You mean you don't know John??

Me: (Completely lost at this stage) Sorry.

Him: Ya' jerk, John is only the most popular character around here lately. Gotta' run now, important business. . .

Me: Hope everything comes out alright. . .

And off he went, leaving me standing there still vainly attempting to figure out why everyone was in such a hurry and just who this popular character John was.

Dear Editor-

Dear Editor —

There are a lot of things that are simply taken for granted, but let's give a little credit where credit is due. The UB Band deserves a pat on the back for the great job they have been doing at the football games this year. As an interested observer, I marvel at the intricate formations and fine music that result when the band "takes the field," so to speak. Despite the fact that Mr. Worley has encountered many problems, he is apparently doing his usual capable job. Here's to more music on our campus. . .

1928 Ziegfeld Girl Has Ziegfeld Girl

By Dick Handler

A UB beauty whose mother was a "Ziegfeld Follies" girl is going to play a "Ziegfeld Follies" girl in 'Campus Thunder.'

She's Virginia Tennant, of 59 Park Ave., whose mother, Mrs. Marion Tennant, was glorified by the late, great Flo Ziegfeld.

Ginny, a senior at UB, will don a costume used by the real Ziegfeld girls back in 1934, when the 'Follies' gave its last show in the New Amsterdam Theater in New York City.

Her mother, known in the old days under her maiden and stage name of Marion Downey, was a Follies Girl in the 1928 edition.

While in New York, Mrs. Tennant was the roommate of Merideth Howard, one of the beautiful Howard twins who starred in the Follies and later went on to Hollywood.

MOM MISS BRIDGEPORT

Mrs. Tennant was born in Bridgeport and grew up in the theatrical tradition. She was in stock companies by the time she was 13 and won the title of Miss Bridgeport in 1928.

Immediately following the winning of the title, Mrs. Tennant went to New York City to try out for the Follies.

Her theatrical career ended in 1930, when she married James Tennant, former big league baseball pitcher, who is now with the FBI in Bridgeport.

Marion left the "Follies" after the 20th edition in 1928 and began rehearsals for the production of "Rio Rita."

Blonde Mrs. Tennant — she still has the beautiful blonde hair that she had in the follies — was one of 20 girls chosen by Fox Movie-tone News to go to California.

While in the Follies, Mrs. Tennant was known as a "pony girl," theatrical terminology for a girl who can double as a chorus line beauty who stands around looking pretty and a girl who can take lead parts as a professional dancer.

Blue Devils Try For First Win Over UB

By Al Munrow and Irv Sobolev

The New Britain Blue Devils, seeking an initial win over the Purple Knights, will invade Candlelite Stadium on Saturday night. Last year the Teachers College of Connecticut settled for a 7-7 tie with a fighting UB eleven.

Coach Ed Creed of the Educators has had some bad luck as his team is having one of its poorest seasons. Frank "Ham Hands" Toro, brilliant end, who also plays halfback, might prove to be the secret weapon Creed needs.

Because of his lack of depth, Creed has used Toro mainly in the backfield slot this year. Graduation has hurt the Blue Devils and there are not too many lettermen back this season.

The UB squad, which has been riddled with injuries this season will have a good chance to win. Coach Kondratovich has worked hard this week and the squad will be in almost top condition.

The coach's biggest concern is the availability of players due to injuries. Last week the physical condition of several men was doubtful up until game time.

SPA Leading By Half Game

By Mickey Vall

Sigma Phi Alpha moved back into first place in the Intramural football league by winning two games, while last week's leader, Alpha Gamma Phi, was tied by Pi Omega Chi which mathematically insured itself of at least third place by also beating Theta Sigma 13-6.

SPA won both their games on forfeits, one from Waldemere Hall and the other from Theta Sigma. This gives them a 6-0 record as compared to 5-0 for second place AGP and 4-1 for the POC boys.

With Phil Carrubba running the length of the field with an intercepted pass and Walt Lombardo snaring a TD pass, POC kept the pressure on the leaders.

The Park Hall Waldemere game which was to decide last place, was cancelled.

Purple Knights Win 39-6 Over Purple Knights

The Purple Knights of St. Michaels College handed UB's Purple Knights their sixth loss in seven gridiron starts as they chalked up a 39-6 victory at Winooski Park, Vt. last week.

The Michaelmen started the ball moving toward paydirt in the first period when one of Eddie Boyle's passes was intercepted by Ted Bergeron. Two plays later Ken Camperson threw three passes to Do LaBossiere which were good enough for six points. The point after touchdown was mdea and the boys from the Green Mountains took an unrelinquished lead.

Another St. Michael's touchdown came as a result of a poor punt which the Michaelmen let roll to the UB twelve. A quick run around right end gave the Vermonters a 13 point advantage.

A UB march was squelched as the boys from up north recovered a UB fumble and later marched 82 yards to score.

UB scored as Walt Johnson and Danny Nastasia ran the ball 62 yards to the 25 yard line. Boyle completed a 14 yd. pass to Dave Rodgers and a bootleg play brought the pigskin to the Michaelmen's 3 yard line.

A five yard penalty for delaying the game put the ball back on the 8. Boyle then handed off to Nastasia who flipped to Tom Tedesco in the end zone.

The Michaelmen found the rest of the game to be one forceful move after another as they quickly rolled up the remaining points.

UB played good ball but it was obvious that injuries were present as the team limped on and off the field at regular intervals.

Coach Kondratovich brought fresh substitutes into the game and the novices played excellent ball. They held the Michaelmen to only six points.

After a two week absence, Bill DeSiero is back on campus again and looking almost as lively as before. I was talking to Mr. DeSiero the other day and he told me that he had a problem that I could help him solve.

During his visit to the hospital, Mr. DeSiero received many gifts, flowers and cards. This is his problem: How to thank everyone who sent him these things. There were many individuals and organizations involved and it would be a tremendous job to thank each one personally.

From Mr. DeSiero to every person and organization who sent him gifts, cards and flowers at the hospital goes his heart felt thanks and an apology for not thanking each one personally.

LISTEN. . . LISTEN. . . If you haven't picked up your pictures from the Wistaria office, be sure to do so at once. The office is open every day from 3 P. M. to 5 P. M. Get up there as soon as possible, because Jan Golden is getting ready to throw them all away. (You wouldn't want that to happen, would you?)

While all the witches and goblins were running around outside Halloween Night, the ones at Schiott Hall were inside at their closed dorm party. Reports have it that at least three broom-sticks were broken and two heads were lost. Gee, they must have had a good time.

The wittiest saying of the week came out of a rehearsal of Campus Thunder one night about two weeks ago. One of the scenes in the show is called the Tick-Tock number. At the end of this bit, couples are swaying back and forth in front of each other in a Tick-Tock type of rhythm.

At the very end, the couples stop and then kiss. Dave Howard's partner kissed him and then tried to do it again. Dave stood up, threw up his hands and cried: "Hey, this girl is trying to ad lib."

Walt Lombardo's "Bermuda" house was the scene of a buffet supper given by POC for their members, pledges and friends last Sunday evening. The week before, this same crew had a coffee session at the Lighthouse to sit down and discuss the major political issue of the day (I'll bet.)

Don't forget the big doings after the opening night of Campus Thunder. ADO is having a party after the show at the Hunt Room of the Hotel Barnum. There will be a band and dancing will continue until 2 A. M. Tickets are $1.50 per couple and you can get them from any member.

Have you noticed the new flannel jackets being worn by members of TS? The black and gold emblems make the boys very distinctive looking.

Alumni Hall Soon Ready

Alumni Hall will be ready very shortly! The first coat of paint is being applied, and the third floor is almost completed. Student organizations will be able to move in soon.

All students are encouraged to go over and see the building in its final stages of completion. Students who wish to help in speeding up the completion of the Hall by clearing away the debris and doing general clean-up work should contact Mr. Brewer.

The Alumni Hall Board of Directors is composed of three day students, one evening student, the Director of Alumni Relations, one faculty member, two trustees and two administrators. This group will decide upon the policies to be followed by Alumni Hall.

Twelve UB Students Apply For SS Exam

By Gary Singer

Only 12 students have submitted applications for the Dec. 4 Selective Service College Qualification Test. The deadline was midnight Nov. 1 and applications postmarked after that time can not be considered.

Another test will be held April 23, 1953 but General Hershey has emphasized that increasing manpower demands make it important that each draft-eligible student who has not taken the test do so as soon as possible.

To be eligible to apply for the college deferment test a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full time course of instruction; (3) must not have previously taken the test.

The present criteria for deferment as an undergraduate student are either a satisfactory score (70) on the Selective Service College Qualification Test or specified rank in class (upper half of freshmen class, upper two thirds of sophomore class, or upper three fourths of the junior class.) It is not mandatory for local boards to follow this criteria, which has been regarded as a flexible yard stick and the standards may be raised at any time.

Dr. Wolff will confer and make necessary arrangements for any student desiring to take future tests. His Student Personnel Office is located on the second floor of Howland Hall. "I am worried," Dr. Wolff states, "that many students will be inducted into the armed services before completing their educational goal through sheer negligence on their part."

Talent Still Present In 1953 'Thunder'

Although many of the players in this year's production of "Campus Thunder" are new, the cast is still up to its high standards of talent of years past. Of course no one will ever take the place of "Little Miss Fill In," Joyce Mathewson, or Erv "Kilroy" Arthur, but "Campus Thunder" will always be the biggest and the greatest even without them.

Cynthia Richelsoph who sang the show stopper "Why Forget The Obvious" with Erv last year, has the lead in this year's show. She is an Amish telephone operator, who because of a bet between Flo Ziegfeld and an eccentric millionaire, is forced into becoming the leading lady of the follies. Cynthia went to Central High where she appeared in the school's annual dramatic and musical productions.

Sid Karem, who last year appeared as Wit Whiteman, has the singing male lead. You probably remember Sid for his rendition of Rainbow's "A'commin' My Way. This year he will play Flo Ziegfeld. Sid, of Arabian birth, has had recent experience singing in local night clubs and he also appeared in camp shows when he was in the service.

Larry Bluth, who before he entered the Office of Campus productions, was a shy and quiet young man now is the glamorous, sumptuous, hilarious "Fifi" and is promising to be "if not the best, the most original one."

The second leads are Dave Howard and Alberta Ivanko, both newcomers.

Specialists and solos will be done by Marge Cisero, Marlene Fanta, Jane Goldsmith, Sam Goldwasser, Dave Howard, Leo Muldoon and John Schaffner.

Members of the singing chorus include: Gail Henderson, S. Briggs, Pat Laeb, C. Siegle, Mary Louise Donahue, Ellen Block, Diane Mac Dougal, Marlene Fanta, Lee Biefield, Nina Silver, Dolores Ludka and Jane Goldsmith. Male chorus members include: Sam Goldberg, Dave Miller, Garry Lennon, Dave Howard, Roger Vars, Bob Middlemass, John Harwood, John Schaffner, Gerry Singer and Marvin Gelfand.

The dancers are: Ginny Tennant, Marjorie Cisero, Constance Kmiec, Barbara Holland, Mary Ellen Bruno, Geraldine Bennet, Anne Yerontakis and Alberta Ivanko.

The Thunderettes are: Lary "Fifi" Bluth, Phil Carruba, Joe Abrams, Frank Jovsa, Dave Bogan, Dick Probst, Roger Saxon, Jerry Maurer and Bob Paul.

Tickets for the show will go on sale Nov. 4 at the Connecticut Symphony Office, 240 Fairfield Ave. and at Bursar's office in Howland Hall on Park Ave. Campus Thunder will open at the Klein for a three night stand starting Friday, Nov. 21. It will also play on Saturday Nov. 22 and Monday, Nov. 24.

Paper Offers Workshop For Young Scribes

By Lee Mekler

From covering the beat, to editing the copy. These, and everything in between will be covered at the journalism workshop organized in conjunction with The SCRIBE. The first meeting was held Nov. 4, in The SCRIBE office in Cortright Hall. There will be meetings every Tuesday hereafter.

You don't have to be a Journalism student to attend the sessions. If there is a large enough turnout the meeting place will be moved to a location with a blackboard, so that the work can be more clearly illustrated.

Members of the Journalism department and The SCRIBE editorial board will be the lecturers. Meetings will be held on a highly informal basis, on the style of a newspaper office to give the students a feeling of intimacy with the newspaper field.

Included in the lectures will be: news writing, feature writing, headline writing, copy reading, re-write, make-up and proof reading. Everyone is urged to attend.

Clough Named As Inter-Hall Prexy

Brad Clough, Marina Hall, was named president of the Inter Hall Committee at that organization's meeting last Wednesday.

Steve Gleba, Trumbull Hall, was named vice president; Dolores Correa, secretary; and Nikki Wenderoth, Wistaria Hall, treasurer.

Frank LaGuisa, co-counselor of Trumbull, is the group adviser.
